DISPUTE: CLAIM OF EMPLOYEES:

1. The Baltimore and Annapolis Railroad Company violated the provisions of the current agreement between the parties when it permitted George Taylor, Superintendent of Operations and Walter Disney, Shop Foreman to perform the routine duties of maintenance employes on March 6, 7, 9, 10, 11, 22, 25, 28, 29, 30, 31; April 10, 16, 22, 23, 25, 30; May 7, 27; June 9, 10, 11, 27; July 15, 27, 28, 29, 30; September 28, 29, 30; and October 22, 1960. Both of these employes are supervisory and are not covered by said Agreement.
2. Each of the maintenance employes be allowed pay at their respective straight time rates for an equal proportionate share of the total man hours consumed by the supervisory employes in performing the work referred to in part 1 above.

STATEMENT: The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form. Parties to said dispute waived right of appearance at hearing thereon, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the parties that the case be withdrawn.
