PARTIES TO DISPUTE:

SYSTEM FEDERATION NO. 97, RAILWAY EMPLOYES' DEPARTMENT, AFL-CIO (Boilermakers)

THE ATCHISON, TOPEKA & SANTA FE RAILWAY COMPANY

DISPUTE: CLAIM OF EMPLOYES:

- 1. That the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company violated Article II, Section 6, paragraph (a) of the November 21, 1964 Agreement.
- 2. That accordingly the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company compensate Boilermaker V. A. Cooney for eight (8) hours at the straight time rate of pay or an additional day off with pay, for his birthday holiday while on vacation, which was denied.

EMPLOYES' STATEMENT OF FACTS: Boilermaker V. A. Cooney, hereinafter referred to as the claimant, was regularly employed by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company, hereinafter referred to as Carrier, as a Boilermaker in Carrier's Shop at Topeka, Kansas, with work week Monday through Friday, rest days Saturday and Sunday.

Claimant took his 1965 vacation May 3 through May 28, 1965, both dates inclusive, returning to service, Tuesday, June 1, 1965. Clamant's birthday was Thursday, May 6, a vacation day of his vacation period for which he was paid a day's vacation pay. However, Carrier failed to allow him birthday holiday compensation for the day, Thursday, May 6, 1965.

Claim was filed with proper officer of the Carrier under date of June 3, 1965, contending that claimant was entitled to eight (8) hours' birthday holiday compensation for his birthday, May 6, in addition to vacation pay received for that day, and subsequently handled up to and including the highest officer of Carrier designated to handle such claims, all of whom declined to make satisfactory adjustment.

The Agreement effective August 1, 1945, as subsequently amended is controlling.

November 21, 1964 Mediation Agreement was negotiated, when they seized upon a distorted interpretation of Article II, Sections 6(a) and 6(b) of that Agreement to support their claim for dual payments when a birthday holiday or a national holiday occurs on a work day of the employe's work week and the employe is absent on vacation.

The Carrier has conclusively shown that Claimant Cooney was compensated for his vacation period in accordance with its historic practice and with the applicable rules of the governing Agreements.

The Carrier is uninformed as to the arguments the Employes may advance in their ex parte submission and accordingly reserves the right to submit such additional facts, evidence and argument as it may conclude are required in reply to the Organization's ex parte submission or any subsequent oral arguments or briefs presented by the Organization in this dispute.

All that is contained herein has been both known and available to the Employes or their representatives.

Oreal hearing is requested.
