

In view of the facts now clearly set forth in the handling on the property, as stated above, we do not agree that claimant called on his rest day is entitled to double time on the theory that he exceeded the number of regularly assigned electrical workers on that day; that number at that time being, "zero".

NATIONAL RAILROAD ADJUSTMENT BOARD
By Order of Second Division

Attest: Executive Secretary
National Railroad Adjustment Board

By Rosemarie Brasch
Rosemarie Brasch - Administrative Assistant

Dated at Chicago, Illinois, this 30th day of July, 1974.

The Second Division consisted of the regular members and in addition Referee Irving T. Bergman when the award was rendered.

Parties to Dispute: ( System Federation No. 156, Railway Employees' ( Department, A. F. of L. - C. I. O.
( (Electrical Workers)
(
( The Long Island Rail Road Company

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That the following employee, E. J. Murphy, Electrician, was deprived of the double time rate of pay worked on Sunday, February 6, 1972 - three (3) hours - when he was called to work on the rectifier at Sub Station PS04.
2. That the above mentioned employee be compensated at the double time rate of pay instead of the time and a half he received for work performed on that day.

Findings:

The Second Division of the Adjustment Board, upon the whole record and all the evidence, finds that:

The carrier or carriers and the employee or employees involved in this dispute are respectively carrier and employee within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act as approved June 21, 1934.

This Division of the Adjustment Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein.

Parties to said dispute waived right of appearance at hearing thereon.

This is a companion case to Award No. 6751. Except for the named claimant and the Sunday date involved, the claim is based on the same contention. The Record of the handling on the property and the positions of the parties are the same.

It is not necessary to repeat the reasoning stated and the conclusions reached. The findings in the case Award No. 6751 may be considered as though set forth herein at length.
