Aerospace Workers
{ Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

That under the terms of the Agreement, Machinist R. L. Williams, was unjustly suspended from the service of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company on the date of July 19, 1977 pending investigation. The investigation was held on July 28, 1977. On September 16, 1977, he was notified that he was dismissed from the service of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company.

That accordingly, Machinist R. L. Williams be restored to service with pay for all time lost, seniority rights, vacation, insurance, and all other rights unimpaired, beginning with his suspension from service on July 19, 1977, and dismissal on September 16, 1977, and continuing until this matter is settled.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the employees that the case be withdrawn.
