{
{ Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That under the current and controlling Agreement, as amended, Service Attendant J. W. Pridemore, I. D. No. 391345, was unjustly suspended from service of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company on April 9, 1980, after a formal investigation was held in the office of Mr. L. W. Davis, Master Mechanic and Conducting Officer, on March 7, 1980.
2. That accordingly J. W. Pridemore, Service Attendant be restored to his regular assignment at Corbin Shops, compensated for all lost time, vacation, health and welfare, and hospital and life insurance and dental insurance premiums be paid effective April 13, 1980 and the payment of 6% interest rate be added thereto.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Employees that the case be withdrawn.
