(National Railroad Passenger Corporation

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That under the current Agreement the National Railroad Passenger Corporation unjustly suspended Ms. Judith Stabler 30 days, effective from July 29, 1983 to and including August 28, 1983.
2. That accordingly, the National Railroad Passenger Corporation be ordered to restore Electrician Judith Stabler to service with seniority unimpaired and with all pay due her from the first day she was held out of service until the day she is returned to service, at the applicable Electrician's rate of pay for each day she has been improperly held from service; and with all benefits due her under the group hospital and life insurance policies for the aforementioned period; and all railroad retirement benefits due her, including unemployment and sickness benefits for the aforementioned period; and all vacation and holiday benefits due her under the current vacation and holiday agreements for the aforementioned period; and all other benefits that would normally have accrued to her had she been working in the aforementioned period in order to make her whole; and expunge her record.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to Organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Employees that the case be withdrawn.
