( National Railroad Passenger Corporation

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That under the current Agreement, the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak) improperly failed to compensate Chicago, Illinois Electrician E. Broome at the time and one-half rate when on November 11, 1983 he changed from the first shift to the third shift as result of having been displaced by Electrician J. Longo, an employe senior to him; and instead unjustly compensated him at the straight time rate.
2. That accordingly the National Railroad Passenger Corporation be ordered to compensate Electrician E. Broome an additional four (4) hours' pay at the applicable Electrician's straight time rate in order to make him whole and in order to protect the Agreement.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to Organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Employes that the case be withdrawn.
