Parties to Dispute: (International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers (Burlington Northern, Incorporated

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That under the current agreement, Carrier improperly assigned to Employees other than Machinists at its Roadway Work Equipment Shop, Livingston, Montana, the work of laying out, alignment and drilling of hydraulic valve mounting holes and the installation of said mounts; the laying out, alignment and drilling of hydraulic cylinder mounting holes and the installation of said mounts; the installation of hydraulic cylinder guides; the laying out, alignment and drilling of roller mounting holes and the installation of said mounts, all on Track Liner No. 68008. This work was performed by members of the Boilermakers craft on March 24, 1980, at the Carrier's direction.
2. That the Carrier accordingly compensate Machinist P. Arata for four hours of work at the overtime rate for failure to assign to him the aforementioned work reserved to Machinists by the controlling Agreement.

Findings:

The Second Division of the Adjustment Board, upon the whole record and all the evidence finds that:

The carrier or carriers and the employe or employes involved in this dispute are respectively carrier and employes within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act as approved June 21, 1934.

This Division of the Adjustment Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein.

Parties to said dispute waived right of appearance at hearing thereon.

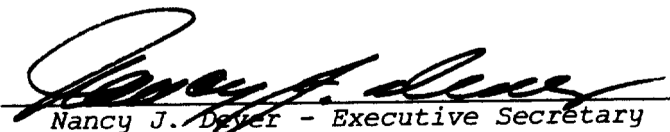

Although the dates of claim and the aggrieved employes are different, there are no material distinctions between the instant claim and the claim that was before this Division in Award No. 10272. For the same reasons expressed in that dispute, the present claim must be sustained.
