NATIONAL RAILROAD ADJUSTMENT BOARD
SECOND DIVISION

PARTIES TO DISPUTE:

IVEN J. KUNEY, EMPLOYEE

vs.

WABASH RAILWAY COMPANY

- DISPUTE: CLAIM OF EMPLOYEE:
1. General seniority of petitioner.
 2. Authority of railroad to install point seniority in the car department.
 3. Seniority of petitioner at point located at Delta, Ohio.

FACTS AND POSITION OF PARTIES: The petitioner is attempting to have his claim decided by this Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board. The carrier contends and the record shows petitioner has not handled his case on the property "in the usual manner" as prescribed in the agreement in effect.
