Dispute: Claim of Employes:

1. Coach Cleaner Albert Reed was unjustly assessed 30 days suspension and was made to serve an additional 15 days which had been previously deferred on January 11, 1978.
2. Coach Cleaner Albert Reed was erroneously charged with poor attendance which allegedly became excessive when he was absent on December 6, 1977 and was late for work on December 9 and 13, 1977.
3. That the Chicago and North Western Transportation Company be ordered to compensate Coach Cleaner Albert Reed for all time lost (45 days) and make him whole for any loss of benefits he may have suffered during the time he was unjustly suspended, as per the provisions of Rule 35.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the employes that the case be withdrawn.
