Claimant T. L. Sewell was employed as a Service Attendant by the Carrier at its Louisville, Kentucky facilities on October 4, 1976 and worked as such until he was suspended from service on August 9, 1979, for failure to comply with instructions and threatening his supervisor. A hearing into the matter was held September 5, 1979. Claimant was found guilty and on September 28, 1979 dismissed from service.

The Board has carefully reviewed the entire record, including the transcript of the investigation conducted on September 5, 1979. The transcript of the proceedings reflects that substantive evidence of probative value was presented to support, the Carrier's findings. We will not disturb the Carrier's findings in this regard. Accordingly, we will uphold the Company's discipline and deny the claim.
