Parties to Dispute: (Brotherhood Railway Carmen of the United States and Canada (Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Company

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Company dealt unjustly and improperly with Carman F. A. Koehler by refusing to honor his request for a special physical examination by the Chief Medical Officer and, in addition, requesting a neutral doctor to determine his physical fitness for his reentry to the service of the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Company.
2. Make F. A. Koehler whole by: compensating him for eight (8) hours at the pro rata rate of pay beginning December 6, 1979 until his return to service; further, all days lost computed toward qualification for vacation purposes, seniority unimpaired, and all losses sustained, if any, caused by the loss of coverage under the health and welfare agreements and all other benefits as a condition of employment had he been permitted to return to service.
3. The time limit was not exceeded on the local level barring the case from further handling as alleged by the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to Organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Carrier that the case be withdrawn.
