(The Consolidated Rail Corporation (Conrail)

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That under current agreement the Consolidated Rail Corporation unjustly suspended Electrician D. H. Wiers from service for fifteen (15) days effective November 17, 1980.
2. That accordingly the carrier should be ordered to expunge the service record of Electrician D. H. Wiers of the aforesaid discipline and to restore Electrician D. H. Wiers to service with seniority unimpaired and with all pay due him from the first day he was held out of service until the day he is returned to service, at the applicable electrician rate of pay for each day he has been improperly held from service; and with all benefits due him under the group hospital and life insurance policies for the aforementioned period; and all railroad retirement benefits due him, including unemployment and sickness benefits for the above mentioned period; and all vacation and holiday benefits due him under the current vacation and holiday agreements for the above mentioned period; and all other benefits that would normally have accrued to him had he been working in the above mentioned period in order to make him whole.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Employee that the case be withdrawn.
