Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That under the current agreement the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak) unjustly dismissed Electrician W. Cannon from service effective November 17, 1980.
2. That accordingly, the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak) should be ordered to restore Electrician W. Cannon to service with seniority unimpaired; to restore to the aforesaid employee all pay due him from the first day he was held out of service until the day he is returned to service at the applicable electricians' rate for each day he has been improperly held from service, and all benefits due him under the group hospital and life insurance policies for the above mentioned period; to restore all railroad retirement benefits due him including unemployment and sickness benefits due him for the above described period, and all vacation and holiday benefits due him under the current vacation and holiday agreements for the aforesaid period; to restore all other benefits that would normally accrue to him had he been working in the above described period in order to make him whole.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Employees that the case be withdrawn.
