Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad Company violated the controlling agreement, in particular Rule 4(c), (e) and 7(d) when Communication Maintainer J. M. Blankenship was required to perform service after his normal work day July 18, 1979 relative to attending Operating Rule Meeting at Manchester, Georgia.
2. That accordingly, the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad Company compensate Communication Maintainer J. M. Blankenship in the amount of two (2) hours and forty (40) minutes at the overtime rate for service required after his normal work day on July 18, 1979.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the employees that the case be withdrawn.
