Award No. 9723
Docket No. 10059
2-L&N-EW-'83

Parties to Dispute: ( International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers
(
( Seaboard System Railroad

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company violated the current Agreement effective September 1, 1943, as subsequently revised and amended in particular Rule 32 and Rule 134, when they arbitrarily suspended Electrician J. R. Adcock, Jr. from service for a period of sixty (60) days beginning October 5, 1981, following an investigation held on September 8, 1981.
2. That accordingly, the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company be ordered to compensate Electrician J. R. Adcock, Jr. for all time lost with all rights and privileges unimpaired and to remove any record of this investigation or its results from his personal file.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the parties that the case be withdrawn.
