(Illinois Central Gulf Railroad Company

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad violated the controlling Schedule "A" Agreement between the Illinois Central Gulf Railroad and the International Association of Machinists & Aerospace workers, as amended, when they unjustly suspended Machinists P.W. Wilson for 30 calendar days beginning March 27, 1981, through April 25, 1981, account alleged excessive absenteeism.
2. That accordingly, the Carrier be ordered to:
 - (a) Pay claimant all wages lost as a result of Carrier's violation of the controlling agreements at the Machinists pro rata rate.
 - (b) Clear claimant's service record of all reference to charges, investigation, and discipline assessed on March 23, 1981.
 - (c) Grant claimant all benefits obtained for Machinists in any agreements reached between the Company and the I.A.M. to which he would have been entitled had he not been suspended from service beginning March 27, 1981, through April 25, 1981.
 - (d) Make claimant whole for all losses incurred as a result of his unjust suspension from service March 27, 1981, through April 25, 1981.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Carrier that the case be withdrawn.
