(National Railroad Passenger Corporation

Dispute: Claim of Employees:

1. That under the current Agreement, the National Railroad Passenger Corporation has unjustly dismissed Beech Grove, Indiana Electrician D. D. Brooks from service effective December 8, 1983 and has unjustly held him from service from 5:25 PM, November 15, 1983 until reinstated pursuant to letter dated February 14, 1984 issued by the Regional Manager-Labor Relations.
2. That accordingly the National Railroad Passenger Corporation be ordered to restore Electrician D. Brooks to service with seniority unimpaired and with all pay due him from the first day he was held out of service until the day he is returned to service, at the applicable Electrician's rate of pay for each day he has been improperly held from service; and with all benefits due him under the group hospital and life insurance policies for the aforementioned period; and all railroad retirement benefits due him, including unemployment and sickness for the aforementioned period; and all vacation and holiday benefits due him under the current vacation and holidays agreements for the aforementioned period; and all other benefits that would normally have accrued to him had he been working in the aforementioned period in order to make him whole; and expunge his record.

Statement:

The above question was submitted to the Second Division of the National Railroad Adjustment Board by the above referred to Organization in ex parte form, hearing thereon was waived, and the Division is now in receipt of a request from the Employee that the case be withdrawn.
