FINDINGS:

The Second Division of the Adjustment Board, upon the whole record and all the evidence, finds that:

The carrier or carriers and the employe or employes involved in this dispute are respectively carrier and employes within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act as approved June 21, 1934.

This Division of the Adjustment Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein.

Parties to said dispute were given due notice of hearing thereon.

Petitioner requested a Hearing before the Board and one was scheduled. Prior to the date of the Hearing, Petitioner notified the Board that he would not attend. Carrier likewise did not attend the Hearing.

Both parties to the dispute have raised numerous issues, procedural and substantive, in support of their positions. The Board finds that it need consider only one. On December 14, 1990, Petitioner executed a resignation and release from the Carrier, which included the following provision:

"I release and forever discharge the Company from any and all claims, causes of actions, and liabilities of any kind or actions currently pending in any stage of appeal including those actions pending before the National Railroad Adjustment Board, arising out of my employment at, or termination of my employment from, the Company."

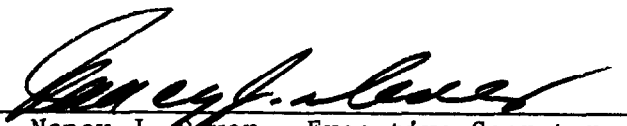

It is clear that such resignation and release covers the dispute before this Board in this docket. The Claim, therefore, having become moot, must be dismissed.
