CHICAGO, MILWAUKEE, ST. PAUL AND PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY

STATEMENT OF CLAIM: * * * for and in behalf of the porters employed by the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Company and represented by the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters. Because the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Company refused to rescind certain parts of a bulletin issued to the above mentioned employes by Superintendent of Dining and Sleeping Cars, William Dolphin, under date of June 23, 1943 in which it was directed that from date of said bulletin employes of the class above mentioned, operating for said carrier as coach porters, were placed under the supervision of brakemen and flagmen. Which action in so placing the above mentioned class of employes under the supervision of said brakemen and flagmen is unjust, unreasonable and in abuse of the carrier's discretion. And further, for said order above mentioned to be rescinded in so far as it applies to the supervision of coach porters by brakemen and flagmen.

FINDINGS: The Third Division of the Adjustment Board finds:
