CARRIER'S STATEMENT OF FACTS: Clerk J. Nausedas did work on Christmas Day, December 25, 1965 which was also his birthday anniversary. For this work he was allowed eight hours pay at the pro rata rate for his birthday holiday, eight hours pay at the pro rata rate for the holiday, Christmas Day, and eight hours pay at the time and one-half rate for working on the holiday. The organization contends that Clerk Nausedas should be paid an additional eight hours at the time and one-half rate or two time and one half days' pay for one eight hour tour of duty plus the two straight time days allowed.

OPINION OF BOARD: Claimant was the regular occupant of a seven day per week Chief Clerk Relief position of the Carrier, Wednesday through Sunday, with assigned rest days of Monday and Tuesday.

Saturday, December 25, 1965, Christmas Day, a designated legal holiday, was also the Claimant's birthday, on which he was required to work eight hours. He was paid eight hours' birthday pay, eight hours for the legal holiday, and eight hours at the time and one-half rate for working the legal holiday. Claim is here made for an additional eight hours' pay at the rate of time and one-half for working on his birthday.

The same issue, as to the interpretation of Article II — Holidays, Sections 6(f) and (g) of the National Mediation Agreement executed November 20, 1964, has been adjudicated by this Board in Awards 14921, 14922, 15013, 15388, 15401, 15451, 15520, 15563, 15585, 15589, 15761, 15891, 15908, 15942 and 15949, among others.

We will deny the instant claim.
