OPINION OF BOARD: A careful review of the record indicates no prejudice to the claimants in the operation of the discipline rule.

The ~~ultimate~~ goal of the discipline assessed in this case is to help insure the security of ~~the~~ Company mail. This does not mean that an ~~employee~~ wishing to retrieve a letter he/she has written may not do so. What it does mean is that should he/she desire the return of a letter he/she authored, proper channels, dictated by ~~common~~ sense and a respect for the privacy of another's mail, should be followed.

The evidence indicates that the claimants were not authorized to open or otherwise handle the Company's mail. Their actions were improper,

The Carrier demonstrated fairness and objectivity in determining the amount of discipline. Therefore, we find the claim without merit.

FINDINGS: The Third Division of the Adjustment Board, upon the whole record and all the evidence, finds and holds:

That the parties waived oral hearing;

That the Carder and the Employees involved in this dispute are respectively Carrier and Employees within the meaning of the Railway labor Act, as approved June 21, 1934;

That this Division of the Adjustment Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein; and

That the Agreement was not violated.
