Docket No. PM-6179

NATIONAL RAILROAD ADJUSTMENT BOARD THIRD DIVISION

PARTIES TO DISPUTE:

BROTHERHOOD OF SLEEPING CAR PORTERS

THE PULLMAN COMPANY

STATEMENT OF CLAIM: *****for and in behalf of M. B. Scott, who was formerly employed by The Pullman Company as a porter operating out of the District of Los Angeles, California.

Because The Pullman Company did, under date of January 28, 1952, take disciplinary action against Mr. Scott by discharging him from the service, which action was taken upon charges unproved and was unjust, unreasonable, and in abuse of the Company's discretion.

And further, because Mr. Scott did not have a fair and impartial hearing because of the fact that he did not have an opportunity to face and cross examine the man complaining against him (an employee of the Company) in the hearing of this case.

And further, for Mr. Scott to be returned to his former position as a porter in the Los Angeles District with seniority rights and vacation rights unimpaired and with pay for all time lost as a result of this unjust and unreasonable action.

OPINION OF BOARD: The facts and circumstances disclosed by the record to not warrant a sustaining award.

FINDINGS: The Third Division of the Adjustment Board, after giving the parties to this dispute due notice of hearing thereon, and upon the whole record and all the evidence, finds and holds:

That the Carrier and the Employees involved in this dispute are respectively Carrier and Employees within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act, as approved June 21, 1934;

That this Division of the Adjustment Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein; and

That the action of the Carrier will not be disturbed.
