3. The three (3) employees improperly displaced as a result of the violation, be restored to their respective positions and compensated for all time lost plus expenses while required to work away from their regularly assigned station (Riverside, California passenger station); and

4. All other employees adversely affected by the carrier's action in arbitrarily removing from the agreement work previously performed by the three (3) displaced telegrapher-clerks at Riverside, California, shall likewise be restored to their respective positions and reimbursed for all monetary losses sustained.
