THIRD DIVISION

PARTIES TO DISPUTE:

THE ORDER OF RAILROAD TELEGRAPHERS

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD COMPANY

STATEMENT OF CLAIM: Claim of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Cincinnati Division that:

On Saturday, September 26, 1953, the Agency at Norwood Freight Station was changed from a five-day position to a six-day assignment, and that an employee not covered by the Agents Agreement was assigned to work on Saturday and to perform work that is normally performed by the Assistant Agent when he is on duty. A change in the relief days of the employee not covered by the Agent's Agreement was made to fill the position on Saturday. Claim is hereby made for pay on a call and overtime basis for J. M. Sigler equal to the hours worked by the employee used to cover this assignment on Saturday, September 26, 1953 and for each subsequent Saturday this method of filling the position is permitted.

FINDINGS: The Third Division of the Adjustment Board finds:

That the dispute was certified to the Third Division of the Adjustment Board ex parte by the complainant party; and

That hearing thereon has been held and concluded. Under date of August 13, 1959, the parties jointly addressed a formal communication to the Secretary of the Third Division requesting withdrawal of this case from further consideration by the Division, which request is hereby granted.

Claim dismissed.
