1. Carrier violated the Clerks' Agreement when on December 23, 1955 it abolished a regular position of Clerk, rate $13.336 per day, at Jackson, Minnesota, that theretofore had been established as a position and filled pursuant to the rules of the Clerks' Agreement, and by unilateral action transferred the work normally attached to the position of Clerk to be performed by other employees not embraced within the scope rule of our Agreement thus violating the provisions thereof.
2. The work attached to the clerical position at Jackson, Minnesota shall be returned, assigned to and performed by the employees covered by the Clerks' Agreement entitled thereto.
3. Carrier shall be required to reimburse Employee Louis C. Meyer, occupant of the position at the time it was abolished, and all other employees affected for any and all losses sustained retroactive to December 23, 1955.
