

NATIONAL RAILROAD ADJUSTMENT BOARD

THIRD DIVISION

Award Number 24152
Docket Number CL-24043

Herbert L. Marx, Jr., Referee

PARTIES TO DISPUTE: (Brotherhood of Railway, Airline and Steamship Clerks, (Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees
(
(Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Company

STATEMENT OF CLAIM: Claim of the System Committee of the Brotherhood
(GL-9462) that:

1) Carrier violated the Clerks' Rules Agreement at Bensenville, Illinois when it charged, held investigation and assessed discipline of an entry of facts on Employee J. K. Conrad's personal record on January 15, 1980.

2) Carrier shall now be required to clear J. K. Conrad's personal record of all mention of the charges, investigation and discipline assessed her as a result of the November 27, 1979 and January 8, 1980 investigations.

OPINION OF BOARD: Review of the record shows that the Claimant and another employee were engaged in an unbusinesslike discussion on November 16, 1979 in the office in which they both worked. The discussion concerned a previous incident (involving an unfriendly verbal exchange between the two) and the placement of a coffee pot on the Claimant's desk.

Claimant was subject to an investigative hearing which, upon review, the Board finds to have been conducted in a fair manner.

As a result, Claimant was disciplined with an "entry of facts" on her record. The incident, while unwelcome and disturbing in an office where many employees work, was of a relatively minor nature. However, the Carrier's judgment was such as to limit its disciplinary action to an "entry of facts", and the Board has no basis to disturb this minimal response.

FINDINGS: The Third Division of the Adjustment Board, upon the whole record and all the evidence, finds and holds:

That the parties waived oral hearing;

That the Carrier and the Employees involved in this dispute are respectively Carrier and Employees within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act, as approved June 21, 1934;

That this Division of the Adjustment Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein; and

That the Agreement was not violated
