(2) Carrier shall, as a result, compensate the listed clerical employees at Baltimore, Maryland, each, eight (8) hours' pay for the shifts shown, seven days per week, commencing July 2, 1977, and continuing for so long as the violation exists:

OPINION OF BOARD: This dispute, one of six involving the same issue between the parties, concerns the Carrier's right to permit Yardmasters to "tear off" a list of freight cars, a "switch list," from a receiving machine following transmittal by use of telecommunications printers at Baltimore, Maryland.

By way of background, on July 1, 1977, Carrier established a Terminal Service Center at Baltimore, Maryland. The Terminal Service Center concept contemplates the retention of a perpetual inventory of cars moved into and out of the terminal, and eliminates the necessity of most daily track checking. Effective with the close of business on July 1, 1977, all clerical positions at Locust Point yard, Baltimore, Maryland were abolished. As a result, Yardmasters were the only employees remaining on duty at the Locust Point Yard Office.

The Company installed a Kleinschmidt RO Printer in the yard office at Locust Point. Three-ply paper is used and as lists of cars are transmitted to the yard office, the Yardmasters are able to tear off the sheets they need along the perforation. It is this "tearing off" of the sheets from the RO Printer and the "separating" of the three copies of switch list that gives rise to this dispute.

The organization contends that by so doing, the Carrier is causing and permitting employees not covered by the Clerks-Telegraphers Agreement to operate such communication receiving devices, including the work of removing (tearing off) and separating message reports of cars from such devices.

The dispute involves the parties' Scope Rule and Rule 67, Printing and Telegraph Machines. Claims that the Yardmaster's tearing off the list and separating the copies violated Rule 67 began to be received on all Carrier's properties. Since the dispute could not be resolved on the property, the Organization processed a December 1975 claim in the Cincinnati yard office and presented it to this Board for adjudication. The Board sustained the claim in Award 22912 (Kasher) which, however, reduced the claim of eight hours pay "for work that took just a few seconds to perform" to a three-hour call.

Thereafter, this Board, with this Referee sitting, in Award 24861 - the first of the six pending disputes involving the same issue - after reviewing Award 22912 and the contracts, arguments and facts in Award 24861, concluded that the opinion reached in Award 22912 was correct. In so doing, this Board determined that, contrary to the Carrier's argument, Article 36 was not adopted unchanged in Rule 67 as regards the issue in dispute, and that read in the context of Rule 75, "the express and ambiguous language of Rule 67, with no stated exception comporting with the Carrier's argument," does not allow Yardmasters to "tear-off" and/or "separate" switch lists.

Having found the claims to be sustained, this Board next addressed the question of appropriate remedy. In agreeing with Referee Kasher's remedy of three-hour call pay in Award 22912, this Board noted that while "some may regard such payment as excessive,"

"...the clear meaning of language may be enforced even though the results are harsh or contrary to the original expectations of one of the parties. In such cases, the result is based upon the clear language of the contract, not upon the equities involved."

Continuity in the interpretation of contract rules is highly desirable, and such interpretations should not be overruled without strong and compelling reasons. There is nothing presented in the consideration of the instant decision which in any meaningful way can serve to distinguish the rationale of the decision in this dispute from that in Award 22912 since it involves interpretation of contract language. The parties are the same, the agreement is the same, and the facts are virtually identical. Having assessed the intent of the parties as evidenced by the contract language, we conclude that the opinion reached in Award 22912, as confirmed in Award 24861, is the correct one.

FINDINGS: The Third Division of the Adjustment Board, upon the whole record and all the evidence, finds and holds:

That the parties waived oral hearing;

That the Carrier and the Employees involved in this dispute are respectively Carrier and Employees within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act, as approved June 21, 1934;

That this Division of the Adjustment Board has jurisdiction over the dispute involved herein; and

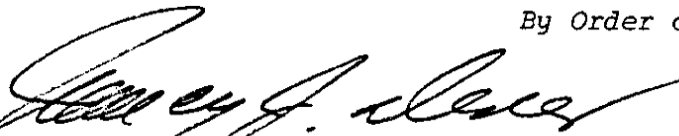

That the Agreement was violated.
