

SPECIAL BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT NO. 605

AWARD NO. 440
CASE NO. CL-134-W

PARTIES TO DISPUTE:

CHICAGO AND WESTERN INDIANA
RAILROAD COMPANY

- and -

BROTHERHOOD OF RAILWAY, AIRLINE
AND STEAMSHIP CLERKS, FREIGHT
HANDLERS, EXPRESS AND STATION
EMPLOYEES

QUESTIONS AT ISSUE:

1. Did the Carrier violate the Washington Job Protection Agreement when, on or about November 1, 1983, it effected a transaction with the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company to perform all agency and clerical functions at 81st Street, Chicago, Illinois, without prior Agreement?
2. If the answer to Question No. 1 is in the affirmative, shall Carrier now be required to allow all benefits provided by the Washington Job Protection Agreement of 1936 to all employees adversely affected thereby and shall Carrier further be required to return to the status quo, unless and until agreement is reached pursuant to the W.J.P.A. to cover the transaction referred to?

OPINION OF THE BOARD:

Subsequent to the submission of the dispute herein to this Board and following oral argument, the Board has been informed that the parties are withdrawing the dispute from further consideration by the Board. The dispute therefore, is dismissed without prejudice.

AWARD: Case dismissed without prejudice.
