

SPECIAL BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT NO. 605

PARTIES ) Fort Worth & Denver Railway Company
TO THE ) and DISPUTE ) Transportation - Communication Employees Union

QUESTIONS
AT ISSUE:

1. Does an employee (extra or regularly assigned) who retains or obtains (by bidding or displacing) a regular position when such is available to him after December 24, 1965, retain protected status under the terms of Article II, even though such employee may not have done so prior to December 24, 1965?
2. Does an employee who Carrier has restricted from working on and/or holding certain positions as regular assignments lose his status as a protected employee under Article II?
3. Do time limits under Time Limit Rules start to run thirty (30) days after November 24, 1965 with respect to claims for compensation due to individual employees?

OPINION

OF BOARD:

This is a companion case to docket No. TCU-28-W, which resulted in Award No. 334, dated November 14, 1972, which disposed of the basic issue as to the claimant, W. W. Linville. Other issues raised are now moot. Accordingly, the case is dismissed.

AWARD
