FINDINGS

Upon the whole record and all the evidence, the Board finds that the parties herein are Carrier and Employee within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act, as amended. Further, the Board is duly constituted by Agreement, has jurisdiction of the Parties and of the subject matter, and the Parties to this dispute were given due notice of the hearing thereon.

Past performances of Claimant has led to his dismissal from the Carrier without a hearing.

In May of 2007, Claimant was reinstated on a conditional basis as he had tested positive for a banned substance.

He was taken out of service then, but he was able to regain his working status by agreeing to certain conditions guiding him to a life without using alcohol or any other banned substances as long as he was working for the Carrier.

One such condition was immediate dismissal for a second positive test within ten years of the first test without a hearing. Claimant knew full well what to expect when he signed the list of conditions.

On May 26, 2009, Claimant violated one of the conditions.

This Board fully supports the action taken by the Carrier as it is supported by Agreements
