

PUBLIC LAW BOARD NO. 3514

Case No. 94

Award No. 77

PARTIES Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees to -and-
DISPUTE: Consolidated Rail Corporation

STATEMENT OF CLAIM: Appeal of Welder, J. J. Hedrick, to have his discipline of dismissal removed from his record and to be restored to the service.

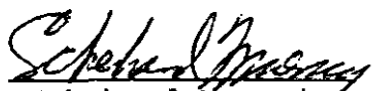

FINDINGS: The Claimant was notified to attend an investigation on a charge that he purchased items by the use of a Carrier order form and then used these items for personal gain. Subsequent to the investigation, the Employee was notified that he had been found guilty and he was discharged from the service.

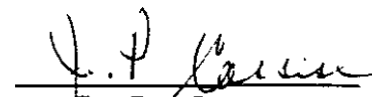

The Board has thoroughly reviewed the record and finds that evidence supports the Carrier's findings of guilt to the charges. Under the facts of this record, which shows a serious offense has been committed by the Claimant, the Board has no basis to set aside the discipline assessed by the Carrier.
