

SPECIAL BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT NO. 591

TRANSPORTATION-COMMUNICATION EMPLOYEES UNION

VS.

READING COMPANY

STATEMENT
OF CLAIM:

"Claim of the General Committee of the Transportation-
Communication Employees Union on the Reading Company, that:

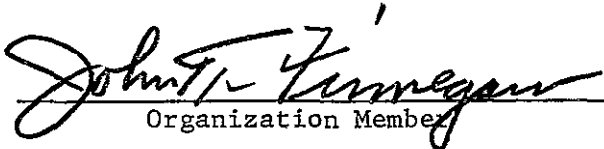

1. Reading Company violated the Telegraphers Agreement when and because it failed and refused to compensate C. Stesko for a days pay (8) hours at the Schuylkill Haven rate on November 30th, December 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 1964, when he was suspended from his regular assignment, 2nd trick Schuylkill Haven, Penna.
2. Reading Company violated the Telegraphers Agreement when and because it failed and refused to compensate C. Stesko at the punitive rate for (8) hours work on November 29th, 30th, December 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 1964 when he was required to work Sunbury Tower on November 29th, 30th, December 1, 2, 3, and Reynolds Station December 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 1964."

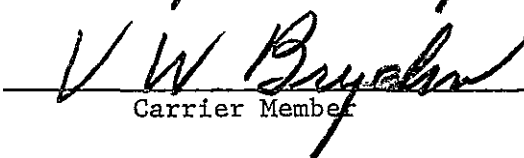

FINDINGS:

The facts are similar to those involved in our Docket No. 25 except that the Carrier contends that claimant Stesko agreed to work the other position and earned more than his regular position paid. Individual agreements inconsistent with the collective agreement are not valid.

AWARD: Claim sustained.
