PROCEEDINGS BEFORE SPECIAL BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT NO. 230

PARTIES TO DISPUTE:

Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees)
and)	Case No. 34
St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company)	Award No. 34

STATEMENT OF CLAIM:

Claim of the System Committee of the Brotherhood that:

1. The Carrier violated the effective Agreement by failing to assign Maintenance of Way welders to the performance of certain specified work in connection with the installation of a jib crane at the shops at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, during the months of September and October of 1959.
2. That senior Welder C. W. Jordan and senior Helper J. W. Beavers be now paid for 80 hours of work at their respective rates of pay account of this referred to violation of the Agreement.

FINDINGS:

Upon the whole record and all the evidence, after hearing, the Board finds that the parties herein are carrier and employee within the meaning of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, and that this Board is duly constituted by agreement and has jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject matter.

From the evidence produced at the hearing, the work performed in this dispute was work which could properly be assigned to the shop forces because it was work which was performed on shop equipment. Therefore, this claim will be denied.

AWARD:

Claim denied.
