AWARD NO. 31
DOCKET NO. TE-8685
ORT CASE 1964

SPECIAL BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT NO. 310

The Order of Railroad Telegraphers and
The Pennsylvania Railroad Company

STATEMENT OF CLAIM: "Claim of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Cincinnati Division, that on Saturday, September 26, 1953, the agency at Norwood Freight Station was changed from a five-day position to a six-day assignment, and that an employee not covered by the Agents' agreement was assigned to work on Saturday and to perform work that is normally performed by the Assistant Agent when he is on duty. A change in the relief days of the employee not covered by the Agents' agreement was made to fill the position on Saturday. Claim is hereby made for pay on a 'call' and overtime basis for J. M. Sigler equal to the hours worked by the employee used to cover this assignment for Saturday, September 26, 1953, and for each subsequent Saturday this method of filling the position is permitted." (Cincinnati Case No. 120 - System Docket No. 278)

FINDINGS:

Here Carrier is in violation of the Agreement. It cannot assign Agent's work on Saturday of a 6 day assignment to an employee not covered by the Telegraphers' Agreement.

AWARD:

Claim sustained.
